

Alhamdulillah, those students who remain within the Madrasah compound during the weekends, their programme is as follows:

After Asr – Swimming, gym and trampoline facilities are open for usage.

After Maghrib – Special alternating supper menu: polony, chip roll, burger, lollies, viennas, braai, all including chips and sauces as well as coffee, milo and juice.

Students get an extra half an hour free time on Saturday night before sleeping.

Sunday – Tahajjud and all Salaahs follow the weekly system.

After Fajr – Last three Sabaqs and outstanding work to be given in an hour class.

Students are then free to sleep until 8:30am

Breakfast – Includes eggs

Additional classes from 9:30am to 10:30am – Incomplete work and disciplinary

11:00am to 12:00am – Bayaan except for holidays and long weekends.

Lunch – 1:15pm to 2:45pm

2:45pm to Asr – Students are free to relax, swim or use other amenities.

Asr to Maghrib – Prepare the mind for class

When parents fetch their children, in the event females require to perform Salaah, there is a Salaah facility available located at the end of the tar road (on the left of the Masjid).
